Miller & Rhoads

Mail Orders Filled at Advertised Prices.

Bargains in Silk Waists $ 3.95 Values Worth $5.98 Now

Fresh, jaunty looking Taffeta Waists, in black and white, blue and white, and brown and white stripes. Tailor-made, tucked front, wide plait trimmed with stitched silk. Good line of sizes. A handsome Waist for fall, with two dollars cut off the price, $3.95.

At the same price there's a lot of Ecru and White Net Waists, trimmed with Cluny and Val. insertion; lined with silk. Former price, $5.98; now, $3.95.

$1.25 White Belmont Cloth Skirts, 98°

The style illustrated has eleven gores, four panels, 4-inch hem and an inverted box plait from the knee to

Nothing made this season to sell for less than $1.25 equals these Skirts

Another style Skirt at the same. price, 98c, has straps over hips and two folds at the bottom.

SHOW PROPRIETOR BEHAVES QUEERLY

Owner of Colored Vaudeville Locked Up for Commission

As a result of the damaging of his theatre through the explosion of a newing picture machine and the loss of valuable articles, or from some other cause, P. H. Ford, the colored owner of the attraction, which is located at Second and Duval Streets, was committed list night on a warrant for an examination before a commission of lunacy. Ford walked into the Second Police Station last night and asked to be put into a safe steel cell, alleging that he was in fear of bodily harm at the hands of an employe whom he hand discharged. A policeman offered to last him to his home, at Miller's Hotel, and see that he came to no injury. Later in the night Ford again went out and ordered some drinks in a saloon on upper Broad Street, which it is said that he refused to pay for. Ford then went into Broad Street on a general rampage.

The wheels in his head were just the street of the control of the course of the control of the control of the course of the control of Richmond. This teen suits against the city of Richmond. The three musits against the city of Richmond.

Thirteen suits against the city of Richmond are on the docket of the ram of the docket of the raw of Economic and Duval Burden and Economic and Duval Burden and Economic and Economi

Ford then went into Broad Street on a general rampage.

The wheels in his head were just getting into action when Policeman Palmer noticed his antics. Finally he grew so violent that it became necessary to arrest him. The officers were advised to take this step by the man's friends to prevent him from hurting himself, as it was said that he had attempted to take his own life earlier in the day. The man was taken to the Second Police Station, where a warrant of commitment was made out, and Ford was sent to the City Jail to await examination by a commistion of the control of the court.

It popular with those who have dealings with the court.

J. W. Scannell threatened to kill Mary Ellen, his wife, and Mary Ellen told Captain Whitlock about it. Policeman Crump went after Scannell for the foot, and the Scannell family will all be in the Police Court this morning.

Henry Archer Locked Up.

Henry Archer Colored) has been charged on a warrant with stealing and carving away three skylings in the ves in Greensburg, Pa., who will tilled of his contention.

"BUILDING PERMITS.

Cathedral School to Erect a Parish
House on First Street,
The Cathedral School has applied to Inspector Beck for a permit to erect a parish house on the east side of First Street, between Jackson and Duval.

KILLED BY CA

serious trouble. He was employed as a brakeman on the Richmond, Fredericksburg, and Potomac Railroad, and was caught be-tween a car and the platform at the Eagle Paper Company's plant on Marshall Street, Dr. Strole, who attended him, said that he was very badly hurt, and he was imme-diately sent to the hospital. White lived at No. 1920 West Moore Street.

THIRTEEN CASES ON DOCKET. That Is the Unlucky Number Against the City of Richmond.

BITTEN BY RABID DOG, SEEK AID IN RICHMOND

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer, from North Carolina, in Awful Danger, Come to Pasteur Institute. Times-Dispatch Asks for Funds.

Times-Dispatch

With both legs black, blue and bruised from the attack of a mad dog last Saturday, Mrs. Joe Farmer, of Wilson, N. C., arrived here yesterday for treatment in the Pasteur Institute, the case in many respects, being reamankable and pathetic. Her. husband came on a similar mission. While Mrs. Farmer was lying on her back, holding the vicious animal by the throat, Farmer was lying on her back, holding the vicious animal by the throat, Farmer was lying on her back, holding the vicious animal by the throat, Farmer ran to her assistance, knocked him out of her way with a stick of wood, and was bitten on the wrist. When the head was examined here the apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Garmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Garmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparent.

The Farmers live at an old mill three apparen

Mrs. Farmer, who is a frail woman thirty-four years old, gave a graphic description of her encounter.

"Will the girl and Mr. Farmer were in the wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were in the word wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were in the wood wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were in the wood wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were in the wood wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were in the wood wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were in the wood wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and Mr. Farmer were line wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and wood to cook wood to cook breakfast. My life tight and wood to cook w Armed Men on the Trall.

LUABLE HORSE
KILLED BY CAR

Running back into the house, Farmer secured a shotgun and followed, but was not rewarded by his search. The dog was not seen again until Sunday morning, when he bit a little negro

Several Thousand Spent the Day at the Byrd Park Resort.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Boy's Skull Is Crushed by "Farm Wagon"-Now in Critical Condition.

LITTLE HOPE FOR HIS LIFE

Negro Killed by Coast Line Engine on Yard-Fined for Selling Liquor.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch No. 1102 Hull Street,

Damon Trevillian, the fourteen-yearold son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Trevillian, is in a critical condition as a result of injuries sustained yesterday af sult of injuries sustained yesterday afternoon by falling from a wagon at Twentieth and Huil Streets.

The boy's skull is fractured, and it was four hours before he recovered consciousness. For two or three hours it was thought that he would die at any moment.

The boy, who is employed by R. H. Richardson, the hardware man, was sent on an errand to the Atlantic Coast Line depot, and he got upon a wagon to ride a portion of the way. The wagon was what is known as a farm wagon, which had no body upon it. He was riding on a bag of grain, which slipped. He fell, striking his head upon the cobblestones, and then the rear wheels of the wagon passed over his head, crushing his skull,

Horrible Accident.

Horrible Accident.

He was picked up and carried into Harrison Brothers drugstore, and he had lost any quantity of blood, when Dr. M. P. Rucker arrived; in fact, when the physician came upon the scene, it looked as though the boy would die at any moment.

Finally, after having his wounds dressed, it was decided that it was best that he be not moved and a palate was made in the rear of the store and he was laid upon that. At about 7 o'clock he showed some signs of consciousness and within a few minutes was able to recognize those around him.

him. Dr. Rucker stated last night that are ready-more stylish than ever-better than ever-the right hats for men who want the best.

Knox Hats

Gans-Rady Co.

CONTEST FOR PRIZE GARDENS WILL END ON MONDAY

lower Garden Contest for School Children
lame	174.A77
Address		LINE CO.
School_		Sev. 2/2

Every Child who wishes to compete for the prizes must fill out this coupon and send it to TIMES-DISPATCH by MONDAY MORNING.

All School Children Who Desire to Compete for Times-Dispatch Prizes Should Send in Their Names at Once to "Flower Editor."

The committee on flower planting from the Civiz Improvement League will visit the homes of the little gardeners on Monday afternoon in an automobile, which Mr. B. A. Blenner has lent as an evidence of his interest in this important work of teaching the love of the beautiful.

The Times-Dispatch will again award prizes of money for the most successful florists, and in doing so will consider the plan of the garden as well as the actual blooms, and will endeavor to encourage individuality.

The name and address of each child desirous of competing for these prizes some time with relatives in Fretz.

Mary Taylor, the little four-year-old grandaughter of J. F. Madison, narrowly escaped drowning in the Licking Creek pond Thursday afternoon. She fell in, and it was through the activity of Mr. Gus Peeple that she was rescued.

Mr. Charles L. Conway, representing the Department of Commerce and Labor, is here engaged in going over the records in the Corporation Court. He is taking down every marriage license that has been issued-and getting data concerning the divorces that have been granted in the court for the past twenty years.

Mr. Charles L. Conway, representing the opening covering the opening covering the properties of the ninety-sixth annual session of Union Theological Seminary will be held in the seminary chapel next Wednesday afternoon at 4 ofclock. The opening address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. James P. Smith.

Mr. Lovenstein Not Permitted to Resign by Royal Arcanum, Isadore Lovenstein, former assistant superintendent of the City Home, has been for more than twenty years collector for the more wife, who was also queen and the property of the property been granted in the court for the past twenty years.

UNION THEOLOGI-CAL SEMINARY

Dr. G. R. Harding, of Columbia, S. C., formerly of Manchester, is visiting his sister at 120 East Tenth Street. He is en route to the Jamestown Exposition, where he goes to attend the International Dental Association.

Rev. A. L. King will preach at the Bainbridge Street Baptist Church Sunday at both services. In the morning the Lord's Supper will be administered.

MOULD NOT ACCEPT IT.

Mr. Lovensiein Not Permitted to Resign by Reyal Arcanum.

James P. Smith.

The exercises will be open to the public, and those interested in the welfare of the institution are invited to attend. Dr. W. W. Moore, president of the institution, says that the prospects are excellent for the opening of the session, a number of students along already matriculated. Practically all of the middle and junior classes of last session will return. It is reported that there will be an unusually large number of matried students in attendance this session, a number having rented cottages in the vicinity.

on the charge of assaulting with a knife one Peter Robertson. From the account given by both parties a seems to have been just a plain ordinary time scape.